<試験官に関して>

NS: 30歳くらいの女性。英国人(?) 若い方だったので以外。声が小さいときがあり、聞き取りにくいときもあった。

TG: 40歳くらいの女性。

GO: 40歳くらいの男性。私を面接室に誘導し、着席。発言はなし。

集合時間までは1階のロビーで過ごし、13時30分に8階で受付を済ませ、控え室で15分くらい待ってから4人一組のグループで9階へ異動。私は4人のなかの一番。面接室に入室したのは2時近くだったと思う。入室すると椅子が2つあり、一方にバックを置くように、もう一方に座るように指示される。着席後、

TG: May I have your name?

I: My name is ○○

TG: Where do you live?

I: I live in ○○ city in ○○ Prefecture.

NS: How did you come here this afternoon?

I: I walked to ○○ Station and took ○○ line to Shinjuku. And I took Chuo line to Ichigaya and walked here.

NS: Did you find here easily?

I: I asked a police officer, actually.

NS: Do you live Saitama for whole your life?

I: Yes, but I stayed in the USA for a year as an exchange student when I was in high school.

TG: Which program was it?

I: International Fellowship.

TG: うなずく。

NS: Where did you stay?

I: Nebraska State.

NS: わからない様子

Did you enjoy staying there?

I: Yes, I did. I visited them this year to participate in my host parents' 50th wedding anniversary party.

NS, TG, GO: みな、うなずく。

NS: I will ask you some questions. Japanese people are not good at speaking English though they study long time. Why do you think so?

I: Japanese people start studying English when they enter junior high school. They probably have 4 or 5 classes a week, but they read books and study grammar. And there are few chances to practice oral communication.

NS: Do you think any personality should be changed to improve foreign language?
